In conformity with several prominent flower growers, we will not issue a new catalog this year, but will issue a supplement to our 1926 catalog. By reducing the exceedingly high cost of a yearly catalog, we are thus enabled to give our patrons the benefit of the saving, by reducing the price of bulbs. A careful comparison of the prices which follow with those of 1926 will be convincing evidence of the saving to our patrons. As the supply of some of the varieties is limited, we would advise early replies to avoid disappointment.

If you have been so unfortunate as to mislay or lose your 1926 catalog, or have never received one, just drop us a line (a postal will do) and we will be glad to send one to you.

Where no mention of a variety is made in this supplement, the same prices as for 1926 will prevail. Prices have been changed as follows:

These are the New Additions to Our Gladiolus Family

Albion—Tall stems bearing large blossoms of salmon rose with a peculiar pinkish ring. Mighty pretty. Each 15; two for 25; $1.50 per doz.

American Pillar—A beautiful variety originated by Knydell, but not listed by him since 1924. Tall spikes bearing many wide open blossoms of rose, over spread with deeper rose. A fine sturdy variety and a beauty. Each 50; $1.00 per doz.

Arlon—Large wide petalled flowers of bright orange salmon with a red throat. A bright and conspicuous spot in the garden. Good strong spikes. A beauty. Each 25; $2.50 per doz.

Bengal Tiger—Large blossoms of a peculiar shade of smoky red, striped and lined with smoky blue-gray. Certainly well named. Barbarically gorgeous. Heartily recommended. Each 30; $3.00 per doz.

Betty Baile—Originated by Mr. M. F. Wright and named for our daughter. About as true blue as has been attained. Dainty and beautiful. Each 25; $2.50 per doz.

Costa Rica—Large blossoms of clear orchid red. The ruffled edges are tinted with a deeper color. Crimson throat. Large spikes. Each 25; $2.50 per doz.

Dr. F. E. Bennett—Flowers of the largest size and of the most fiery red imaginable. Many open at one time and perfectly placed on the stem. Probably the best red glad in the world. Each $1.00.

Early Pink—Large pure pink blossoms with peculiarly speckled throat. Early and very pretty. Each 20; three for 50; $2.00 per doz.

Glendale—A beautiful new glad of an unusual shade and color. It has the exact shade of red found in that variety of cyclamen which usually blooms at Christmas time. Each 25; $2.50 per doz.

Laodicea—This is the forerunner of a new type in gladiolus and sold for $1.00 a bulb in 1924. The edges of the petals are beautifully waved and fringed. The largest rose pink blossoms are borne on slender, graceful spikes of good height. One large bulb will often produce several spikes of bloom. Each $3.50.

Linton—Upper petals salmon-rose; lower petals yellow. Tall and well ruffled. Each 30; $3.50 per doz.

Mary O'Mine—See page 26 in 1925 catalog. Actions speak louder than words, and no recommendation of ours could possibly equal the report given by Rev. Paul R. Schriver of Oxford, New Jersey, which is as follows: "MARY O'MINE was con- signed to the market May 11, 1926. She sproted four spikes. Upon my return from Rochester, the first spike was coming into bloom. 1st 2nd 3rd spike spike spike to bloom to bloom to bloom Bulb planted May 11 May 11 May 11 Date of bloom Aug. 14 Aug. 22 Sept. 6 Number of days to bloom 85 100 118 Duration after cutting 10 10 10 Number of blooms on spike 14 14 12 Greatest number of florets open at one time 7 7 7 Length of spike 4½ ft. 3 ft. 11½ in. 4 ft. Words are inadequate vehicles to express the beauty and grandeur of MARY O’MINE. It is superb. A pure crystal white except for faint violet markings deep in the throat which can only be seen by very careful examination.
Tall, slender, graceful stems, always straight with several immense well formed florets with perfect placement. Many have cried, ‘Finest of all whites’, but when the crown is conferred, MARY O’MINE will be in the reckoning. I have forty-three whites and MARY O’MINE is the best of all.’ In proof of the above Rev.
Schriver sent us his picture holding MARY O’
MINE in a vase. An idea of its immense size may be arrived at by comparing it with a vase of Kumber’s Adoration which is also in the same picture. Stock very limited. Good blooming size bulbs $10.00 each.

so brilliantly beautiful that it is hard to realize is a glad and not a cattleya orchid. Good sized blossoms; six to eight open at one time; tall straight spikes; perfect placement of florets—everything a perfect glad should have.

THUS—see the wonderful color: Pink-lish lavender with a very prominent violet lower petal. No written description can convey the striking resemblance to the eye of a peacock feather. It must be seen.

blotch. A beauty. Each $1.50; $1.00 per fishy violet, yellow throat. Tall and fine.
